Levi III

Adversity in the Christian's life

Genesis 37:1-8, 12-14, 17b-28, 36

(Gen. 37:1) Now Jacob dwelt in the land where his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan. (2) This is the history of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brothers. And the lad was with the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives; and Joseph brought a bad report of them to his father. (3) Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age. Also he made him a tunic of many colors. (4) But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak peaceably to him. (5) Now Joseph had a dream, and he told it to his brothers; and they hated him even more. (6) So he said to them, "Please hear this dream which I have dreamed: (7) "There we were, binding sheaves in the field. Then behold, my sheaf arose and also stood upright; and indeed your sheaves stood all around and bowed down to my sheaf." (8) And his brothers said to him, "Shall you indeed reign over us Or shall you indeed have dominion over us?" So they hated him even more for his dreams and for his words.

(12) Then his brothers went to feed their father's flock in Shechem. (13) And Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers feeding the flock in Shechem? Come, I will send you to them." So he said to him, "Here I am." (14) Then he said to him, "Please go and see if it is well with your brothers and well with the flocks, and bring back word to me." So he sent him out of the Valley of Hebron, and he went to Shechem.

(17b) So Joseph went after his brothers and found them in Dothan. (18) Now when they saw him afar off, even before he came near them, they conspired against him to kill him. (19) Then they said to one another, "Look, this dreamer is coming! (20) "Come therefore, let us now kill him and cast him into some pit; and we shall say, 'Some wild beast has devoured him.' We shall see what will become of his dreams!" (21) But Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands, and said, "Let us not kill him." (22) And Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit which is in the wilderness, and do not lay a hand on him"; that he might deliver him out of their hands, and bring him back to his father. (23) So it came to pass, when Joseph had come to his brothers, that they stripped Joseph of his tunic, the tunic of many colors that was on him. (24) Then they took him and cast him into a pit. And the pit was empty; there was no water in it. (25) And they sat down to eat a meal. Then they lifted their eyes and looked, and there was a company of Ishmaelites, coming from Gilead with their camels, bearing spices, balm, and myrrh, on their way to carry them down to Egypt. (26) So Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is there if we kill our brother and conceal his blood? (27) "Come and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hand be upon him, for he is our brother and our flesh." And his brothers listened. (28) Then Midianite traders passed by; so the brothers pulled Joseph up and lifted him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty shekels of silver. And they took Joseph to Egypt.

(36) Now the Midianites had sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh and captain of the guard.

Temptation in the Christian's life

Genesis 39

(Gen. 39:1) Now Joseph had been taken down to Egypt. And Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him down there. (2) The LORD was with Joseph, and he was a successful man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian. (3) And his master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD made all he did to prosper in his hand. (4) So Joseph found favor in his sight, and served him. Then he made him overseer of his house, and all that he had he put under his authority. (5) So it was, from the time that he had made him overseer of his house and all that he had, that the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was on all that he had in the house and in the field. (6) Thus he left all that he had in Joseph's hand, and he did not know what he had except for the bread which he ate. Now Joseph was handsome in form and appearance. (7) And it came to pass after these things that his master's wife cast longing eyes on Joseph, and she said, "Lie with me." (8) But he refused and said to his master's wife, "Look, my master does not know what is with me in the house, and he has committed all that he has to my hand. (9) "There is no one greater in this house than I, nor has he kept back anything from me but you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?" (10) So it was, as she spoke to Joseph day by day, that he did not heed her, to lie with her or to be with her. (11) But it happened about this time, when Joseph went into the house to do his work, and none of the men of the house was inside, (12) that she caught him by his garment, saying, "Lie with me." But he left his garment in her hand, and fled and ran outside. (13) And so it was, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and fled outside, (14) that she called to the men of her house and spoke to them, saying, "See, he has brought in to us a Hebrew to mock us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I cried out with a loud voice. (15) "And it happened, when he heard that I lifted my voice and cried out, that he left his garment with me, and fled and went outside." (16) So she kept his garment with her until his master came home. (17) Then she spoke to him with words like these, saying, "The Hebrew servant whom you brought to us came in to me to mock me; (18) "so it happened, as I lifted my voice and cried out, that he left his garment with me and fled outside." (19) So it was, when his master heard the words which his wife spoke to him, saying, "Your servant did to me after this manner," that his anger was aroused. (20) Then Joseph's master took him and put him into the prison, a place where the king's prisoners were confined. And he was there in the prison. (21) But the LORD was with Joseph and showed him mercy, and He gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison. (22) And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners who were in the prison; whatever they did there, it was his doing. (23) The keeper of the prison did not look into anything that was under Joseph's authority, because the LORD was with him; and whatever he did, the LORD made it prosper.

Blessings to others by living a Christian life

Genesis 42:6-8, 25-28; 43:1-2, 15-24, 33-34; 45:1-11

(Gen. 42:6) Now Joseph was governor over the land; and it was he who sold to all the people of the land. And Joseph's brothers came and bowed down before him with their faces to the earth. (7) Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but he acted as a stranger to them and spoke roughly to them. Then he said to them, "Where do you come from?" And they said, "From the land of Canaan to buy food." (8) So Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him.

(25) Then Joseph gave a command to fill their sacks with grain, to restore every man's money to his sack, and to give them provisions for the journey. Thus he did for them. (26) So they loaded their donkeys with the grain and departed from there. (27) But as one of them opened his sack to give his donkey feed at the encampment, he saw his money; and there it was, in the mouth of his sack. (28) So he said to his brothers, "My money has been restored, and there it is, in my sack!" Then their hearts failed them and they were afraid, saying to one another, "What is this that God has done to us?"

(Gen. 43:1) Now the famine was severe in the land. (2) And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought from Egypt, that their father said to them, "Go back, buy us a little food."

(15) So the men took that present and Benjamin, and they took double money in their hand, and arose and went down to Egypt; and they stood before Joseph. (16) When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, "Take these men to my home, and slaughter an animal and make ready; for these men will dine with me at noon." (17) Then the man did as Joseph ordered, and the man brought the men into Joseph's house. (18) Now the men were afraid because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said, "It is because of the money, which was returned in our sacks the first time, that we are brought in, so that he may make a case against us and fall upon us, to take us as slaves with our donkeys." (19) When they drew near to the steward of Joseph's house, they talked with him at the door of the house, (20) and said, "O sir, we indeed came down the first time to buy food; (21) "but it happened, when we came to the encampment, that we opened our sacks, and there, each man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight; so we have brought it back in our hand. (22) "And we have brought down other money in our hands to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks." (23) But he said, "Peace be with you, do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; I had your money."

Then he brought Simeon out to them. (24) So the man brought the men into Joseph's house and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their donkeys feed.

(33) And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth; and the men looked in astonishment at one another. (34) Then he took servings to them from before him, but Benjamin's serving was five times as much as any of theirs. So they drank and were merry with him.

(Gen. 45:1) Then Joseph could not restrain himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried out, "Make everyone go out from me!" So no one stood with him while Joseph made himself known to his brothers. (2) And he wept aloud, and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard it. (3) Then Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph; does my father still live?" But his brothers could not answer him, for they were dismayed in his presence. (4) And Joseph said to his brothers, "Please come near to me." So they came near. Then he said: "I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. (5) "But now, do not therefore be grieved or angry with yourselves because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life. (6) "For these two years the famine has been in the land, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvesting. (7) "And God sent me before you to preserve a posterity for you in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. (8) "So now it is not you who sent me here, but God; and He has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt. (9) "Hurry and go up to my father, and say to him, 'Thus says your son Joseph: "God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not tarry. (10) "You shall dwell in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near to me, you and your children, your children's children, your flocks and your herds, and all that you have. (11) "There I will provide for you, lest you and your household, and all that you have, come to poverty; for there are still five years of famine."

Forgiveness in the Christian's life

Genesis 50:15-21

(Gen. 50:15) When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "Perhaps Joseph will hate us, and may actually repay us for all the evil which we did to him." (16) So they sent messengers to Joseph, saying, "Before your father died he commanded, saying, (17) 'Thus you shall say to Joseph: "I beg you, please forgive the trespass of your brothers and their sin; for they did evil to you."' Now, please, forgive the trespass of the servants of the God of your father." And Joseph wept when they spoke to him. (18) Then his brothers also went and fell down before his face, and they said, "Behold, we are your servants." (19) Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid, for am I in the place of God? (20) "But as for you, you meant evil against me; but God meant it for good, in order to bring it about as it is this day, to save many people alive. (21) "Now therefore, do not be afraid; I will provide for you and your little ones." And he comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

Final victory in the Christian's life

Genesis 50:22-26, Exodus 13:19, Hebrews 11:22

(Gen. 50:22) So Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he and his father's household. And Joseph lived one hundred and ten years. (23) Joseph saw Ephraim's children to the third generation. The children of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were also brought up on Joseph's knees. (24) And Joseph said to his brethren, "I am dying; but God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land to the land of which He swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob." (25) Then Joseph took an oath from the children of Israel, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here." (26) So Joseph died, being one hundred and ten years old; and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

(Ex. 13:19) And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had placed the children of Israel under solemn oath, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here with you."

The Friend who loves me most,
And that, whate'er betide me,
My Savior is at hand
Thro' stormy seas to guide me
And bring me safe to land. | 3) My heart for joy is springing
And can no more be sad,
'Tis full of mirth and singing,
Sees naught but sunshine glad.
The Sun that cheers my spirit
Is Jesus Christ, my King;
The heaven I shall inherit
Makes me rejoice and sing. |

Suggested Prayer

Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We ask for Your blessing upon our Bible studies. Open our hearts to understand the great work of Jesus as the Savior from sin. First instruct us in Your most holy and gracious will and then make us willing followers. Use the life Joseph to teach us to trust that You, our God, will make all things, even adversity, work for our good. Enable us to do Your will by fleeing sin, show us that by being a blessing to others round about us, we glorify Your name. Forgive us our many sins for the sake of Jesus Christ, even as we also for the sake of Jesus forgive those who hurt us. And, finally, as the sum of all our hopes, give us in Christ the victory over death and take us from this vale of tears to our eternal home of peace and joy in heaven. We ask for these blessings in the name of Jesus. Amen.
